

THE PUTTING PRESS

APRIL 2010

POSITIVE REVIEWS OF THE NEW HIGHFIVE! 2010 GOLF SHOWS HUGE SUCCESS

It's officially been one full year since The Putting Press first came out. Thank you to all for joining the new innovation in putting with R&B and hammy putters!

2010 Golf Shows

We kicked off the 2010 season in Columbus, Ohio for the North Coast show back in January. Attendance was up and people were very interested in our putters. We did two shows in the state of Michigan this year and were extremely pleased with the number of people and the feedback we received. We will definitely be back in Grand Rapids and Novi next year; you can count on it!! Thank you to all that dropped by to see us at our booth at the shows we did. It was great to see returning customers as well as new ones. We hope you have a wonderful 2010 season and that your putting game will be much improved thanks to our putters!

The Talk

What was all the buzz about at the golf shows in our booth? It was the new HighFive that finally arrived, that's what!!! The new blade style with radius face was the highlight of our shows. After much time spending designing and re-designing the putter, we at R&B have finalized the "ultimate" putter! A completely rounded face to eliminate those hops and skips and the new sleek design en-

WHAT'S NEXT...

After getting our putters into the hands of golfers like yourself at golf shows over the past two years, we know scores will be much improved among our customers. We are very anxious to hear everyone's feedback. Send us your success stories so that we may include them in our next issue of The Putting Press, which is due out in mid-July. You can email us your feedback at the addresses to right.

If you were not lucky enough to attend any of the golf shows and purchase a putter this year, now is the time to buy. Put that tax refund to good use. Go online and order today!

Putt well.
